Dining in Telluride & Mountain Village:

Telluride trends towards the casual, where jeans and Patagonia jackets are just as acceptable as evening attire in many dining establishments. Reservations are the same: less frequent and/or not required in many restaurants, but an option for a select few (and recommended for fine dining establishments).

On-Site dining at The Peaks Resort:

The Pick: lobby level

Grab coffee & light breakfast items in the morning, enjoy cocktails and other beverages and light fare in the afternoons & evening hours. Check on-site for current hours of operation & offerings.

Dining Reservations:

Due to varying reservation & cancellation requirements, restaurants prefer to work directly with guest vs. concierge/third parties. Please make your own reservations either directly with the restaurant or via opentable.com
